PhD Programme (Public Health) 2022–2023

School of Global Affairs (SGA)

SGA offers a range of interdisciplinary, diverse and overlapping programmes in global studies, urban studies and public health that support, encourage and redefine liberal arts education through a number of interdisciplinary courses, participatory pedagogy and teaching-learning processes.

PhD Programme in Public Health

The School of Global Affairs offers admission on an annual basis to a PhD Programme in Public Health which underscores a reflective engagement with public health theory and practice and the development of research competency. Research scholars shall acquire or improve skills for effective review of and engagement with scholarship in their chosen areas of research. They are enabled to discover and apply methodologies necessary to carry out original research aimed at an interdisciplinary engagement with public health issues. Research scholars will actively contribute to the intellectual life of the University through regular communication about their research work with faculty and fellow students. The key output of Public Health research scholars' would be a thesis.

Program Details and Requirements

- The PhD program strictly adheres to the rules and regulations of the University Grants Commission, as they are enforced and revised from time to time.

- Doctoral candidates are required to complete a course work of 12 credits in the first year (two semesters) of admission, including a “Research and Publication Ethics” course.
- All the candidates admitted to the Ph.D. programme shall be required to complete the Ph.D. course work prescribed by the School.
- Participation in course work presumes a scholar’s residence in Delhi region during the officially recognized academic year/ sessions and the scholar’s regular attendance of classes and related academic activities.
- A doctoral supervisor is appointed from the School within a year of admission to the program. Experts and scholars with academic credentials from outside the School or university can be appointed as co-supervisors in case the candidate requires additional or specialized guidance.
- A Research Advisory Committee (RAC) is appointed for every candidate, with the supervisor as the convener of the committee. The RAC advises the candidate and monitors her/his/ their progress in the PhD program.
- Every candidate is expected to complete the six milestones of the PhD program
  - ✓ Course work
  - ✓ Presentation and defense of a research synopsis
  - ✓ Pre-submission presentation
  - ✓ Pre-submission requirements of conference presentations and publication
  - ✓ Production of an original thesis
  - ✓ Viva-voce examination of the PhD thesis
