WIDER Development Conference
Transforming economies for better jobs
11-13 September 2019, Bangkok, Thailand

LETTER OF INVITATION

Dear Dr Deepita Chakravarty,

We have the pleasure to invite you to this year's WIDER Development Conference, Transforming economies for better jobs. The conference is jointly organized by the United Nations University – World Institute for Development Economics Research (UNU-WIDER) and the United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (ESCAP). The conference will be held on 11-13 September 2019 in Bangkok, Thailand.

This WIDER Development Conference will provide a forum to discuss innovative, theoretical, and empirical research and its policy take-aways on the challenges for productive job creation in many different country contexts, across all developing regions.

The conference will engage current debates around the future of work in the face of rapid labour-saving technological advances, vis-à-vis the changing nature of globalization. It will address the implications of this on achieving SDG 8 on decent work and economic growth, and the prospects for structural transformation in low- and middle-income countries.

Key questions will address SDG 5, gender equality, and SDG 10, inequality, by looking at the persistent barriers to productive and well-paid jobs for women and disadvantaged groups, especially in manufacturing and services.

UNU-WIDER will be pleased to assist with your participation. The Institute will provide you with a return air ticket to Bangkok from your stated departure airport as well as cover the cost of your hotel accommodation, airport transportation, and most meals during the conference in accordance with the United Nations University travel policy. There is no conference fee.

To make the most of the conference programme we suggest that you plan to arrive in Bangkok on Tuesday 10 September and depart on Friday 13 September (evening flight) or Saturday 14 September (morning flight) depending on flight availability. Please note that conference participants are responsible for obtaining travel insurance at their own cost. If needed, we are ready to assist you in obtaining a visa.

Please do not hesitate to contact our conference team if you have any general queries at tram@wider.unu.edu or janis@wider.unu.edu, or by telephone at (+358) 9 615 9911.

Dear Mr. Akhil Katyal:

We are delighted to invite you to attend the 49th session of the International Writing Program at the University of Iowa. The full program will run from August 20nd to November 8th, 2016.

Thanks to a successful nomination by the U.S. Embassy in New Delhi (whose officers are cc'd here), you will be attending the Residency courtesy of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs at the U.S. Department of State (ECA). ECA's funding will provide on-campus housing, international travel, a $30/day per diem, health insurance, and ten days of travel in the U.S.

Since 1967, when the IWP was founded, we have hosted more than 1,400 writers from 190 countries at our Fall Residency. It is truly a one-of-a-kind experience for early- to mid-career writers; you would join an alumni roster that includes John Banville (Ireland, 1980), Bei Dao (China, 1988), Bessie Head (Botswana, 1977), Etgar Keret (Israel 2001), Earl Lovelace (Trinidad, 1980), Arnost Lustig (Czechoslovakia, 1970), Orhan Pamuk (Turkey, 1985), Edwin Thumboo (Singapore 1977, 1986), Luisa Valenzuela (Argentina, 1969), Mo Yan (China, 2004), and many, many more. For the 2016 residency, we are expecting about 35 writers from around the world to participate. At the IWP, you will be welcome to work on writing and research projects. There will be many optional literary activities offered here, including talks and readings; panel discussions; a university course, International Literature Today; the Iowa City Book Festival; and visits to places of local interest.

One additional invitation to note right away: you will also see a document attached, outlining the opportunity for a second, follow-on residency at Stockton University that will take place immediately after the IWP from November 8-30. Please consult the documentation and let us know if you would like to accept this follow-on residency offer by Friday, June 3rd.

We'll be in touch with more details about the program soon, but if you would as a first step, please confirm your availability to participate this fall. We do so hope you'll be able to join us.

Yours Sincerely,

Christopher Merrill

Fellowship 2016 / 2017

- 1. I hereby acknowledge the decision of the program “Art Histories” at the Forum Transregionale Studien (Forum), administered by the Wissenschaftskolleg zu Berlin, to grant me a fellowship for the post-doctoral program within the framework of the research program “Art Histories and Aesthetic Practices” for the academic year 2016/2017 (October 1, 2016 through July 31, 2017) and consisting of
 - a. a monthly stipend of € 2,500; plus a monthly family allowance of € 250 for accompanying partner and/or children (minimum stay of the partner and/or children is 3 months without interruption);
 - b. reimbursement of my travel expenses from my home residence to Berlin as well as the return trip (train – 2nd class, flight – economy class);
 - c. an initial relocation lump sum of € 430 (to be paid with the first stipend installment so as to contribute to additional costs of relocation, such as charges for extra baggage or research materials, visa fees, travel costs of accompanying partner and/or family, and the costs of getting settled in Berlin);
 - d. the Forum can cover the costs of health insurance for me and my accompanying partner and/or children in case my insurance fails to provide adequate coverage for my stay in Germany (see 4.e).

- 2. I hereby confirm my acceptance of the fellowship and commit myself for the time stipulated above
 - a. to take up residence in Berlin;
 - b. to devote my efforts to the project proposal submitted in my application;
 - c. to participate regularly in the activities and seminars of the program I am affiliated with as well as in the seminars that are set up by the Forum for the postdoctoral fellows of programs at the Forum;
 - d. to regularly work in the academic institution with which I am associated during the academic year of my fellowship;
 - e. to mention my affiliation as a “Art Histories” Fellow at the Forum Transregionale Studien in all publications resulting from my work here and in publications as well as lectures and presentations given during my fellowship;
 - f. to report, on request, on the course of my studies and to present an evaluation of my research at the end of the fellowship;
 - g. to abstain from gainful employment during my fellowship;
 - h. to contribute to one of the publications by the Art Histories Program.

3. I hereby commit myself to inform the office of the Forum immediately if

- a. the research project is interrupted, changed, finished earlier than planned, or completely abandoned;
- b. I am remunerated by a third party for my academic work or if I or – with my consent – a third party benefits financially from the sponsored project;
- c. I am granted a fellowship by a third party;
- d. changes occur in my personal or professional situation.

4. I hereby note and acknowledge that

- a. in case of absences of less than two weeks, I am expected to give prior notification to the office of the Forum and the coordinator of the program I am affiliated with.
Absences which are longer than 14 days presuppose the consent of the Forum and the coordinator of the program I am affiliated with. In principle, fellows are not entitled to receive a full monthly stipend if they are absent from Berlin for more than 14 days continuously or more than 30 days total. The Forum reserves the right to make cuts in the fellowship payment. At the beginning of the research stay in Berlin – i.e. during the first month – fellows are only entitled to their first full stipend when arriving by the 15th of the month or on the following working day. Fellows who arrive after this date are not entitled to payment in the respective month. In the last month fellows are expected to be present at least until the 15th of the month or the preceding working day. Fellows who leave Berlin before that date are not entitled to receive a stipend for that month.

Participation in academic conferences, research trips, and archival or library visits that are essential for carrying out the project do not count as absences if they do not exceed a week (continuous) or 14 days (in total over the period of the fellowship).

- b. any personal income exceeding € 1,800 per annum must be declared and may be deducted from the fellowship;
- c. any income earned by my partner exceeding € 400 per month must be declared and automatically disqualifies us for the family allowance.
- d. the allowances for children or members of the family with disabilities are not included in the stipend and must be applied for separately to the Berlin authorities; the office of the Forum will help to apply for the governmental children's allowance (€ 184 per child per month during the stay in Berlin) and/or allowances for persons with disabilities, if applicable.
- e. it is my own responsibility to arrange adequate personal insurance. If I am privately insured, I will clarify with my insurance company whether my coverage extends to Germany or if I will require supplementary insurance. If my home insurance provides sufficient coverage during my stay in Berlin, I will bring a statement from my insurance company certifying this, because the Ausländerbehörde (Foreigners' Registration Office) can demand proof that I have health insurance.

If I do not have health insurance that covers my stay in Germany, the Forum will cover the costs of health insurance for me and my accompanying partner and/or children prior to my arrival through MAWISTA Health Insurance (tariff "Mawista Science"), which also includes insurance for personal liability. The coverage offered by Mawista does NOT include costs for pre-existing illnesses or preventive examinations (for further details about the conditions, see: www.mawista.com).

- f. finding accommodation during my stay in Berlin and kindergartens or schools for accompanying children is my own responsibility. The office of the Forum can offer help in finding appropriate accommodation and other practical arrangements within the limits of its capacities.
- g. The stipends, including the aforementioned additional allowances, are exempt from social security legislation and taxes.

5. The Forum reserves the right

- a. to take into account contributions by a third party for maintenance or equipment insofar as they are related to the sponsored research project;
- b. to demand repayment of the stipend plus appropriate interest or an appropriate share in any financial yields directly resulting from the sponsored research project;
- c. to alter or cancel the grant if the fellowship holder fails to fulfill the conditions stipulated above;
- d. to alter or cancel the grant if the fellowship holder has not received his doctorate prior to the beginning of the scholarship;
- e. to withdraw or alter the fellowship-offer if the funding institution of the fellowship program decides to alter or cancel its support.

Dear Dr. Venugopal Maddipati,

It is my pleasure to inform you that the panel proposal on which you are a participant, "Competing Nationalisms and the Architectural Histories of South Asia" organized by Dr. Vandana Baweja at the University of Florida, was selected for inclusion on the AAS 2015 annual conference formal program, scheduled from March 26-29, 2015 at the Sheraton Chicago Hotel. We are able to provide $1,800 under the LDC program to help cover your related travel expenses. We regret that in most cases individual travel awards had to be reduced somewhat from the requested amount due to the large number of travel subsidy requests we received this year. Expense reimbursement will be limited to international round-trip 30-day advance purchase economy airfare, up to three nights hotel accommodations at the conference rate, and conference registration, up to the overall maximum travel grant award specified above. We encourage you to make inexpensive travel arrangements, and to explore other funding sources if additional support is required. Please be aware of the following conditions and procedures.

Funds are to be handled on a reimbursement basis with receipts required either at or after the conference. This arrangement was adopted both to minimize costs and to avoid administrative headaches of providing participants money up front. No forms are required, however since reimbursements will be limited to actual costs incurred, we will need original receipts for all claimed expenses. With the above disclaimer in mind, we acknowledge that some invited LDC scholars may have difficulty in paying travel costs themselves in advance. Therefore, if necessary, we can advance funds to cover airline tickets and registration costs for those participants who genuinely need them.

1. All student participants on the program are required to pre-register for the conference by December 5. Non-students on the program must pre-register by December 11. Please note funding can only be utilized for travel expenses, accommodations and registration, i.e., not for membership dues. We can process advance registrations "in house" and deduct the individual amounts from the total LDC funding provided. To do so, we would need to receive an official request from the panel organizer. Please contact Teresa Spence by email (tspence@asian-studies.org) to make these arrangements.

2. We also can arrange to send advance payment for plane tickets directly to an airline or travel agent. Supporting documentation on which to base payment, such as invoices and itineraries from the agency would be required. Please note it is the responsibility of the invited scholar or panel organizer to make their own airline reservations (as well as hotel arrangements). Tickets should be roundtrip economy 30-day advance purchase fares. Please contact Alicia Williams at the AAS directly by telephone (734-665-2490) or by email (awilliams@asian-studies.org) to make this type of arrangement.

3. Finally, we also can arrange to provide cash reimbursements for expenses on-site at the conference. Again, reimbursements are limited to eligible expenses up to the maximum grant amount specified above, and receipts are required for all claimed expenses. Please contact Alicia Williams at the AAS registration desk in the Sheraton Chicago Hotel during the conference to make cash reimbursement arrangements.

To avoid delays, we also recommend that you begin the process of securing a visa as soon as possible. Once again my congratulations and thanks for contributing to what promises to be an exciting program in Chicago.

Dear Professor Mao,

On behalf of the Florida State University's Learning Systems Institute and Santa Fe College I would like to congratulate you on your selection as a participant in the 2015 Community College Administrators Program with India to be held September 19 to November 1, 2015 in Tallahassee and Gainesville, Florida. Faculty and staff of the Florida State University (FSU) and Santa Fe College have organized a highly informative series of seminars, meetings, and site visits specifically designed to familiarize you with the mission, organization, administration and function of U.S. community colleges. These activities are intended to equip you with knowledge and skills that will be useful to you in your role in the development of community colleges in India.

The Community College Administrator Program with India is a six-week program of study for Indian officials with higher education planning responsibilities and administrators from post-secondary vocational and technical institutions in India. Funded by the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, and implemented by the Florida State University and Santa Fe College, the exchange program will consist of a one-week Executive Dialogue and a five-week Community College Seminar. Fourteen Indian administrators from post-secondary vocational and technical institutions and officials with higher education planning responsibilities in key elements of community college leadership have been selected for the full six-week program. Four high-level Indian higher education officials will join this group of fourteen at the start of the program for the one-week Executive Dialogue.

In the coming weeks you will receive a statement of Terms and Conditions of Award and pre-arrival information from the FSU Center for Global Engagement. Please review these documents carefully and complete and sign the accompanying forms. Retain one copy for your records and return a second signed copy to the Florida State University Learning Systems Institute.

Your travel will be arranged in consultation with you and in accordance with USIEF regulations. You will fly on airlines covered under the Fly America Act or by Air India. For your travel arrangements, please get in touch with Dr. I. Jaya Bharati, Program Coordinator, Indian Program, USIEF-New Delhi at jaya@usief.org.in. Her telephone number is (011) 4209 0946.

If you are on an eight to twenty-four months grant, subject to availability of funds, a dependent allowance of $200 and international travel may be provided for one accompanying eligible dependent provided the dependent is with you in the U.S. for at least 80% of the grant period.

If you are employed, the fellowship has been awarded to you on the assumption that you will be given leave by your employer for your research/teaching/professional development in the U.S. This should be confirmed officially to us as soon as possible. Since funds in this program are extremely limited, no extensions are possible.

CIES, the coordinating agency in the United States, has been designated by the FSB and the U.S. Department of State to arrange, verify and supervise the professional programs of foreign scholars visiting the United States to conduct advanced research under the Fulbright-Nehru program.

You should feel free to communicate with USIEF and CIES concerning any problems that may arise during your stay in the U.S. Please contact Dr. Sudarsan Dash, Senior Program Officer, Indian Program, USIEF-New Delhi at sudarsan@usief.org.in and Dr. I. Jaya Bharati, Program Coordinator, Indian Program, USIEF-New Delhi at jaya@usief.org.in. The Program Officer for Fulbright Visiting Scholar Program at CIES is Ms. Meaghan Wallace MWallace@iie.org. All matters relating to international travel, except in the case of emergency, should be taken up directly with USIEF in India at least two months before your departure from the U.S. It is understood that you will return to India as soon as your program in the U.S. is over.

USIEF will disburse your monthly stipend and applicable allowances, unless otherwise specified, through wire transfer to your U.S. bank account. Please provide to USIEF the required U.S. bank information on the prescribed format immediately after opening your U.S. account.

USIEF expects you to remain in touch with USIEF and CIES during the course of your grant. You will have to submit a mid-term report, half way through the grant period, to USIEF. In addition, you are required to submit two reports on your U.S. experience and impressions—one to CIES at the end of your stay before leaving the U.S. and the second to USIEF after your return. The forms for these will be given to you at the appropriate time.

Since all awards under the Fulbright-Nehru Program involve full or partial U.S. Government financing, visiting scholars are subject to the two-year home residence requirement associated with the J-1 visa. This means that you are not eligible to apply for status in the U.S. as permanent resident, H temporary worker/trainee, or L intra-company transferee until you have resided and been physically present in India for at least two years following your departure from the United States.

It has been a pleasure to participate in the awarding of this grant. We trust that you will have a profitable period of stay in the U.S. and we offer to you our congratulations upon the award of this grant.

Yours sincerely,

In addition to confirming your attendance, your response will indicate the following information:

1. Your preference of the two discussion seminars being offered. (Seminar descriptions can be found on our website here.) We cannot guarantee that we will be able to honor all seminar preferences, but we will do our best to accommodate as many requests as possible, and will fulfill these requests in the order that we receive them.
2. If you would like to participate in the writing workshops. These workshops are tentatively scheduled for 3:00 - 4:30 PM on eight of the ten days that the Mellon School is in session. The graduate student writing workshop will be led by Professor Derek Miller (Harvard University) and the faculty writing workshop will be led by Professor Andrew Sofer (Boston College). Participation in the writing workshop entails a sizable reading commitment on top of what will already be a busy and rigorous two weeks. However, our past participants have consistently reported that the writing workshops were among the most valuable aspects of their stay at the Mellon School. We strongly encourage you to participate in the workshops if you are a faculty member or postdoc with a book manuscript in progress, or if you are a graduate student who has completed chapters of your dissertation.
3. If you require dorm accommodation during your stay at the Mellon School. Residency at the dorms costs $77 per night, plus a flat fee of $19.50 for linens. The dorms have the advantage of being convenient and affordable, and of providing a space in which to gather with other participants. Accommodations in the dorms, however, are very basic. Dorm rooms are single-occupancy and bathrooms are shared. There are no provisions for cooking or recreation in the dorms. If you are interested in staying at the dorms, it is crucial that you let us know the exact dates of your stay by Friday, April 15. There will be no cancellations, date changes, or additional reservations possible after this date, and you will be responsible for the cost of your reservation even if you cannot attend. There are absolutely no exceptions to this policy. Please also note that 50% of the charges for your dorm accommodation will be due by May 1, with the balance to be paid upon arrival. If you indicate on the registration form that you are interested in dorm accommodations, we will follow up in early April to confirm the dates of your dorm stay.

In the past, some Mellon School participants have been happier making their own housing accommodations. We would be glad to provide you with information about AirBnB, hotels, and short-term sublets from Harvard affiliates or students depending on your interests and needs. In addition, we will soon be forming a Facebook group for 2016 Mellon School participants, and if you choose to join it, you'll be welcome to use this group to introduce yourself to others and discuss your housing preferences.

Once again, we congratulate you on your acceptance to the Mellon School. We look forward to receiving your registration form at your earliest convenience.

Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns you may have. We hope to see you in June!

Best regards,
Rebecca Kastleman

Dear Mr. Liang:

At the recommendation of Professor Karuna Mantena, Chair of the South Asian Studies Council at the Whitney and Betty MacMillan Center for International and Area Studies at Yale, I am pleased to offer you an appointment as Henry Hart Rice Faculty Fellow in South Asian Studies for the 2016-17 academic year. Your appointment will begin on August 1, 2016 and end on May 31, 2017.

Your official appointment will be at the rank of Post-Doctoral Associate and Lecturer and compensation for the period will be $50,000. Your monthly pay will be $5,000. This is a residential fellowship and you are expected to be on campus for the duration of your appointment. Post-doctoral associates are employees of the University and thus you will also receive fringe benefits and you will be subject to federal income tax and social security withholding. The privileges associated with this position are in the Faculty Handbook <http://provost.yale.edu/faculty-handbook>.

In addition, we will provide you with up to $2,000 for receipted travel and relocation expenses, and $2,500 in research funds. The South Asian Studies Council will also provide you with office space, possibly shared with another scholar, including a computer with internet access.

You will have full access to Yale's substantial library and other scholarly resources. We encourage you to participate actively in the larger intellectual and social activities of the South Asian Studies Council and broader MacMillan Center communities, including various lecture series and conferences.

The Office of Post-Doctoral Affairs requires specific items relevant to your post-doctoral appointment, including proof of Ph.D., three letters of teaching reference, and an updated CV. You will receive an email from Whitney Doel (whitney.doel@yale.edu) at a later date with instructions on providing this information.

I understand that you are currently in the process of completing your PhD. Please note that in order to be appointed as a post-doctoral associate, Yale University requires that you have completed all requirements for the Ph.D. at the time you assume appointment. Thus, your appointment as post-doctoral associate is contingent upon receipt by the MacMillan Center prior to May 31, 2016 of either a copy of your doctoral diploma or written notification from your University registrar stating that all doctoral degree requirements have been completed and your dissertation has been deposited accordingly. If you do not meet this deadline, we will shift your appointment to post-graduate associate with an annualized salary of $45,000 and fringe benefits. Once you have completed the degree, we will convert you to an annualized salary of $50,000 pro-rated monthly for the balance of your appointment. Promotion to postdoc and reappointment beyond this initial year will require evidence of degree completion. Please send this confirmation to Ms. Doel.

Please note that your appointment is contingent upon your having the proper U.S. immigration status and that the exact start date of your appointment may change if your visa or immigration process approval is delayed. While Yale's Office of International Students and Scholars will assist you whenever possible, it is your responsibility to apply for and obtain the correct visa status to enter the U.S. Note, too, that this offer is contingent upon the successful completion of a background check.

During your appointment you will devote most of your time to your research on free speech, politics of intellectual property laws, and access to knowledge in the global South. You will also be expected to devote part of your time to teaching, specifically one course in each semester. The teaching will be incorporated into your existing duties rather than additive. The Yale College Course of Studies Committee must approve any new undergraduate course, i.e., one not already in the Yale College Bulletin. Syllabi and exact titles should be discussed at your earliest convenience with Professor Tariq Thachil, Director of Undergraduate Studies (tariq.thachil@yale.edu), and Ms. Kasturi Gupta, Program Manager (Kasturi.gupta@yale.edu), so that the course proposals and approval may be expedited. We may also ask other majors, such as Political Science and the Law School, to cross-list your classes to extend your reach to more students.

Beyond the courses, you will be expected to advise students, especially those majoring in South Asian Studies and those working on senior essays focused on South Asia.

We ask that you recognize the MacMillan Center in any publications or presentations that directly result from your work while you are with us. Also, please send us a copy of any publication that may result from work under this arrangement. In addition, we ask that at the conclusion of your time at Yale, you send us a report of no more than two pages which describes, as applicable, your teaching, research, and participation in campus events, interactions with faculty and students, publications, and lectures and publications at other institutions during your appointment. This will help us to sustain funding for appointments such as yours.

If you agree to the terms and conditions of this offer, please reply by email to Whitney Doel (whitney.doel@yale.edu) with your acceptance.

My colleagues and I look forward to welcoming you to Yale.

Sincerely,

Dear Professor Rohit Negi,

The India China Institute (ICI) is pleased to cordially invite you to The New School as a Visiting Fellow for the period between April 1, 2018 and April 30, 2018. In addition to pursuing your own research during this period, we ask that you also make yourself available to help advance ICI's research initiatives and engagement in India and China. In particular, we ask that you:

- Produce a paper (7-10 pages) that draws on your participation in ICI-convened workshops in China and India to provide recommendations on ways of strengthening the intellectual focus of our initiative situated in the Pearl River Delta in China and National Capital Region of India.
- In consultation with ICI, establish regular (weekly) office hours, during which time students and faculty can consult you regarding their research.
- Deliver a public talk on your research while at The New School.

The India China Institute will arrange lodging and a round-trip economy airfare from India to New York City.

As you know, ICI was established in late 2004 within The New School – a university in New York City – as a research institute committed to analyzing major issues and trends in India, China, and the United States, and to helping leaders, managers, public opinion-setters, intellectuals, and academics in all three countries address key challenges through collaborative solutions. Through the years, ICI has expanded its research scope to also explore India and China in a broader global context. We are confident that your affiliation with the Institute will be mutually beneficial.

Please do not hesitate to contact me or Grace Hou, our Administrative Director via phone 212-229-6812 or by email (houg@newschool.edu). The India China Institute looks forward to your visit.

About the Application for Visa Certificate of Eligibility (I-20 or DS-2019)

Congratulations on your admission to Columbia University and welcome to the International Students and Scholars Office (ISSO) web site for online submission of your Application for Visa Certificate of Eligibility (AVC).

A Certificate of Eligibility is a document issued by the ISSO for an admitted student that is evidence of your eligibility for a non-immigrant student status in the United States. New students who will study full-time in F-1 Student status receive an I-20 form. You must obtain your I-20 form before you may apply for an F-1 entry visa at a U.S. Consulate abroad or a change of status if you are already in the U.S. in another status.

All applications and supporting documents for a Certificate of Eligibility are submitted to the ISSO. Most I-20 forms are issued by the ISSO. Students admitted to the College of Physicians and Surgeons, the College of Dental Medicine, the School of Nursing, the Programs in Occupational and/or Physical Therapy and the Institute for Human Nutrition at the Columbia University Medical Center campus will have their I-20 issued by the International Affairs Office at CUMC.

Teachers College students must apply for the I-20 with the Teachers College Office of International Services (OIS). Email tcintl@tc.columbia.edu for information on the application process.

Canadian nationals do not need visas to enter the U.S. but must apply for an I-20 and pay the SEVIS fee before appearing at immigration inspection at a port of entry.

Dependents: If you are married and plan to bring your spouse and any children under 21 years of age, they may apply for F-2 visas (dependents of F-1 visa holders), if funding to meet their additional expenses is documented. The amounts for the 2014-2015 Academic Year are U.S. $1,000 monthly for your spouse and U.S. $500 monthly for each child. Your dependents may join you at any time during your studies.

The ISSO will not issue an I-20 for the F-2 visa for dependent spouse and/or child(ren) of students admitted to the Graduate School of Business EMBA-Global programs. Dependents who will accompany students attending the week-long class blocks at Columbia should apply for a visitor visa.

Couples in relationships not recognized as marriage are not eligible for dependent status. Partners may apply for a B-2 Visitor visa. For information about B-2 status for partners and a link to the U.S. Department of State cable about B-2 for cohabiting partners, see the Domestic Partners section of the ISSO's web site at http://www.columbia.edu/cu/isso/visa/F-1/F-1_dependents.html (http://www.columbia.edu/cu/isso/visa/F-1/F-1_dependents.html)

Important Information about Summer Session

If you need a Certificate of Eligibility to attend the Summer Session, you must tell us which session you will attend in the Remarks section at the bottom of the online application form. The available sessions are Session D (May 26 - July 2), Session Q (July 6 - August 14) or Session X (May 26 - August 14).

If you are an F-1 student at another U.S. institution who will study at Columbia during your summer vacation and return to your institution for the fall term, you DO NOT need a new I-20 from Columbia.

Important Information about English Language Study Before Starting an Academic Program

The ISSO cannot issue an I-20 if you will study English before the start of your academic program. If you wish to study English during the summer before you begin your academic program, or if you are required to study English by your school of admission, you must obtain your I-20 Certificate of Eligibility from the English language school you will attend. Apply for your F-1 entry visa with the I-20 from the English language school.

When your English studies are finished, you need to request a transfer I-20 from the ISSO to begin your academic program. Most students will not need a new F-1 entry visa and most students will be able to "transfer" their F-1 SEVIS record from the English language school to the ISSO. Read the information about Transfer by F-1 Students to Columbia University (http://www.columbia.edu/cu/isso/visa/F-1/F-1_transfer.html) for an overview of the process.

How To Transfer Your English studies SEVIS record to the ISSO

1. Submit the online Application for Certificate of Eligibility. Select Pick Up at the ISSO as the delivery option for your transfer I-20.
2. Submit the required supporting documents as described on the Application for Certificate of Eligibility web site
3. Give the Transfer In Form \(http://www.columbia.edu/cu/isso/visa/Transfer_Form.pdf\) to your school's Designated School Official (DSO) for their signature. Your school's DSO will release your SEVIS record to Columbia University on or soon after the date your English studies end.
4. If you attended Columbia's ALP, you do not need to submit a Transfer In Form. ALP and ISSO work closely together on the transfer process.
5. After you receive email from the ISSO that your I-20 is ready, come to the ISSO to pick it up and complete the transfer process. Your transfer must be completed within 15 days of the start of classes for the term or you will lose your F-1 student status.
